

Code Lyoko – A Universal Game of Friendship

Earth has a parallel universe called Lyoko and both face the threat of annihilation! A super virus, X.A.N.A., has infected the central processing units of the Super Computer. Only four kids know of the existence of Lyoko and can foil the mad computer's evil designs and save the earth. Meet Yumi, Ulrich, Odd and Jeremy, ordinary boarding school students who lead double lives in the digital world of Lyoko.

Code Lyoko, in simple terms, is a universal story of friendship and solidarity that is told using a unique blend of 2-D and 3-D animation. It is no wonder that this TV series is one of the top ranked programs on Cartoon Network in the USA! Code Lyoko is broadcast 5 days a week as part of the highly rated Miguzi Block, which first premiered in April 2004. The second season premiered September, 2005 and consists of 26 episodes. Code Lyoko is set to air through 2007 on Cartoon Network.
